WHEREAS, The continued future progress of the State of South Dakota is to a large extent dependent on the total good health of its children and youth, the citizens of tomorrow; and,

WHEREAS, Total good health--physical and mental--can be achieved through good health habits, learned early; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Dental Association and the South Dakota Department of Health maintain continuing educational programs in support of good dental health habits for young people to prevent dental disease:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of February 4 through 10, 1973, as in South Dakota and urge that all citizens join in the observance.

CHILDREN'S DENTAL HEALTH WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 23rd day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-three.
